| Listening Skills | Level | Your Performance   |
| Listening        | High  | Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms, or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, abstract or complex ideas, and/or making sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information. When listening to lectures and conversations like these, test takers at the HIGH level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• understand main ideas and important details, whether they are stated or implied;</li><li>• distinguish more important ideas from less important ones;</li><li>• understand how information is being used (for example, to provide evidence for a claim or describe a step in a complex process);</li><li>• recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);</li><li>• understand many different ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and</li><li>• synthesize information, even when it is not presented in sequence, and make correct inferences on the basis of that information.</li></ul> |

| Speaking Skills                           | Level*  | Your Performance  |
|---|---------|---|
| Speaking about Familiar Topics            | Fair    | Your responses indicate you are able to speak in English about your personal experiences and opinions in a mostly clear and coherent manner. Your speech is mostly clear with only occasional errors. Grammar and vocabulary are somewhat limited and include some errors. At times, the limitations prevent you from elaborating fully on your ideas, but they do not seriously interfere with overall communication.  |
| Speaking about Campus Situation           | Limited | Your responses indicate that you have some difficulty speaking in English about information from conversations, newspaper articles, university publications, and so on. While you are able to talk about some of the key information from these sources, limited grammar and vocabulary may prevent you from fully expressing your ideas. Problems with pronunciation make it difficult for listeners to understand you at times.   |
| Speaking about Academic Course Content    | Fair    | Your responses demonstrate that you are able to speak in English about academic reading and lecture material, with only minor communication problems. For the most part, your speech is clear and easy to understand. However, some problems with pronunciation and intonation may occasionally cause difficulty for the listener. Your use of grammar and vocabulary is adequate to talk about the topics, but some ideas are not fully developed or are inaccurate.   |
| Writing Skills                            | Level*  | Your Performance  |
| Writing based on Reading and Listening    | Fair    | You responded to the task, relating the lecture to the reading, but your response indicates weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>an important idea or ideas may be missing, unclear, or inaccurate;</li> <li>there may be unclarity in how the lecture and the reading passage are related; and/or</li> <li>grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul>   |
| Writing based on Knowledge and Experience | Fair    | You expressed ideas with reasons, examples, and details, but your response indicated weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>you may not provide enough specific support and development for your main points;</li> <li>your ideas may be difficult to follow because of how you organize your essay or because of the language you use to connect your ideas; and/or</li> <li>grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul> |

* Skill levels for speaking and writing individual skills are estimates of performance at the item level. The total writing and speaking scaled scores and ranges are more accurate. Therefore it is not appropriate to combine the individual skill levels. Doing so may lead to apparent inconsistencies between the diagnostic feedback and reported writing and speaking scores.
